About This Property

Les Arnauds is a bed and breakfast in a 17th-century Provençal farmhouse in Aix-en-Provence. Sheila welcomes guests to her family home, surrounded by lavender, olive trees and views over the countryside. There are three individually furnished double rooms, each around 20 m² and with a private bathroom. Henri Matisse has a 160 × 190 cm double bed and a bathroom with a bath, basin and toilet. Geneviève Hugon has a 200 × 210 cm super-king bed, a bathroom with a bath and twin basins, and a separate toilet. Yves Brayer has a 180 × 190 cm bed and a bathroom with a bath, basin and toilet. Each room accommodates up to two guests. Outside, guests share a saltwater swimming pool overlooking the countryside, a shaded garden, terraces and a pétanque court. The tennis court can also be used for handball, basketball, football and volleyball. The house has welcoming sitting areas and outdoor places to relax. Sheila is British and can offer suggestions for cultural visits and places to eat.
