

The Atelier, traditional cottage in village center

Summary

In a quiet residential village center, traditional cottage with lovely commun garden (3 gites) and private outside sitting dining areas to enjoy barbecues during the summer evenings.

Description

In the village you'll find, an organic boulangerie, a superb french cheese shop, a post office, a pizzeria/restaurant, 2 excellent crêperies, a hairdresser... There are also 2 local English speaking doctors and a very big pharmacy. Less than a mile away a big supermarket (cycling/walking path to it).

There are numerous beaches just within 5-8km such as the well known resort of Benodet with its casino, the untouched golden sandy beaches of Fouesnant and the coves of Beg Meil which are always a favourite with my guests.

Just a 2min drive away is the town of Fouesnant which offers all amenities shops, bars, beach view cafés, supermarkets, popular refined restaurants and traditional crêperies.

There are plenty of cultural visits in the area. You shouldn't miss... Quimper, Concarneau and Locronan beautiful historical towns, fishing ports, not to mention the peninsulars of Point du Raz and Crozon.

Brittany is well known for its walks. Escape into the hidden countryside with its authentic scenery and follow the coastal paths with their magnificent views.

Cycling is popular around the country lanes and a lot of the major roads have a cycle lane.

There is the possibility to do every kind of water sport, sailing, canoeing, sail boarding and many others from one of the local nautical centres.

There are 2 excellent local swimming pools and a Thalassotherapy centre in Benodet.
Not forgetting 3 golf courses, horse-riding, accrobranche (acrobatic tree climbing), bowling etc...
