

La Boursaie 16th C. Cider Farm Cottages

Summary

La Boursaie is a former Cider farmstead set on the south facing slopes of a spectacular valley panorama.

Description

La Boursaie is a lovely 16th century former cider farmstead set in the very heart of the beautiful Pays d'Auge region of the Calvados departement of Normandy. Nestling into the southern slopes of a picturesque valley with meadows, pastures, orchards and woodland, La Boursaie has a picture postcard view across a valley of ancient manors and villages.

Rustic, comfortable and safe; within a few minutes of two cheese villages- Livarot & Camembert !!

Our four charming, independent and characterful half-timbered cottages, built in the traditional Colomage style typical only of this region, are set around a spacious pretty courtyard.

Relax under an apple, pear or ancient walnut tree whilst enjoying a refreshing glass of farm cider or Calvados. Stroll through wildflower meadows up into the fairy tale woods, rich in wildlife (red squirrel, buzzards, owl, deer, fox and badger, also ideal for ornithologists!) Percheron horses, Normandy Cows, Calvados Chickens & Ducks!

Daily B & B , 3 day short stays , week long holidays -absolute peace & tranquility for children and adults alike..!
