

La Cave, Gites de Lenvos, Cleguerec, Pontivy

Summary

One of five 16C courtyard cottages in a private hamlet set in 15 acres of award winning gardens and grounds. With heated swimming pool, Lenvos is ideal for all ages. Sleeps two in one bedroom.

Description

Formerly the cider store, La Cave is a cosy single bedroomed cottage with thick stone walls, exposed oak beamed ceilings which although thoroughly renovated, still retains its ancient character. It is tastefully decorated and modern with a fully equipped fitted kitchen, French and UK satellite TV, bath and power shower. Heated, insulated and double glazed La Cave is warm in winter, cool in summer. A cot or cot-bed can be supplied making it ideal for a family with one small child.

The private enclosed garden has a patio which overlooks the surrounding meadow and lake. It is equipped with exterior lighting, BBQ, sun-loungers, hardwood furniture and sun-shade.

The fenced pool area has a 14m long, 2m deep, floodlit, heated swimming pool and a smaller childrens splash pool. The poolside terrace is well furnished and is separated from the two lower sun terraces by exotic planting, offering privacy. The pool is open from the start of May until late September.

The grounds have been developed and managed to give numerous wildlife habitats and peaceful gardens. The fertile green river valley encourages a vast array of wildflowers, insects and birds including kingfishers, herons, red squirrels and hawkmoths. The two lakes can provide excellent wild coarse fishing, exclusive to guests. In recognition of the unique gardens and grounds Lenvos is a four times winner of the First prize in the Gites Fleuris competition for the Morbihan region.

The Nantes to Brest Canal, which borders Lenvos, and nearby forests are popular with walkers and cyclists and there is plenty to do for every age and taste in the area. Lenvos is an ideal location for a peaceful break and the play areas, secret garden and seasonal bushcraft make Lenvos an exciting place for children of all ages. This part of Brittany is rich in culture and history. There are many quaint villages, bustling market towns and fabulous regional foods. The beaches of South Brittany are less than an hour away.
