About This Property

Le Pigeonnier is about 120 square meters in size. The house has been renovated from the original building which housed pigeons some years ago. (Pigeonholes are even still visible) The house has its own outside seating area for “al-fresco” dining located near to the main entrance of the accommodation. Outdoor table and chairs are available and also a parasol. A private charcoal Bbq completes the outside equipment. Several relaxing chairs are also provided. Le Pigeonnier has been classified as 3* accommodation by the French Tourist Board. The main door leads from the courtyard directly to the living room complete with 2 comfortable sofas. The wood burner is set in the original stone fireplace and bread furnace. Adjacent to the living room is the contemporary kitchen with an extending dining table to comfortably seat 4 guests.
