About This Property

A Château in Northern Burgundy — 1 hour 20 south of Paris, by train or by car/ 25 mn from INSEAD Campus (Fontainebleau) Sleeps up to 14 adults and 10 children An 18th-century château of 500 m², square-built and set in its own park, in the northernmost reaches of Burgundy. The bedrooms. Seven double bedrooms for couples, two of which take an extra single bed. For teenagers and young guests, three further rooms: one with a futon, one with two single beds, and a dormitory sleeping five children. The setting. The house opens onto the best of two worlds. To the north, Paris and its southern approaches: Fontainebleau and Vaux-le-Vicomte half an hour away, and a wealth of museums — the Musée Rosa Bonheur, the Musée Camille Claudel, and many more. To the south, northern Burgundy, from the cathedral town of Sens to the vineyards of Chablis, an hour from the gates.
