About This Property

A cottage with a secret gardenTucked away at Maison de la Roche, this two-storey cottage has its own walled garden scented by jasmine and honeysuckle. Its private terrace offers a peaceful place to sit outside, with a path towards the shared pool and trampoline area. Downstairs is an open-plan living room and equipped kitchen. A curved handmade staircase leads to a double bedroom and a twin bedroom upstairs. The cottage sleeps four and has a bathroom with a walk-in shower. Fans, a hairdryer, television and a Blu-ray player are provided. Maison de la RocheSet in a restored former wine domaine in the village of Ferrals-les-Corbières, Maison de la Roche has three individual holiday homes. The gîtes share a secluded swimming pool just over nine metres long, with steps at one end and heating available at either end of the season. There are gardens, barbecue areas, a gated courtyard, a trampoline, a swing and games for children.
