About This Property

The Red House is the largest of the four gîtes at Les Gîtes Condorcet, a converted former stable in the Catalan village of Saint-Laurent-de-la-Salanque, in the Pyrénées-Orientales. The 90 m² house sleeps eight and is well suited to two families or a small group travelling together. It is finished with solid pine floors, oak furniture, exposed beams and rustic brickwork, in a warm red colour scheme. The gîtes have been open since 2007 and are labelled 3 épis by Gîtes de France. It is also classified as a 3-star “Meublé de Tourisme”.

Downstairs, a modern, well-equipped kitchen with a dishwasher opens into a living and dining area with a wood-burning stove, a large antique oak table and a Catalan-style cushioned sofa bench. There is a cloakroom with a washbasin and a separate WC. On the first floor are two double bedrooms: one is en-suite with a 140 cm bed, the other has a 160 cm bed. A family bathroom has a bath with shower, a washbasin and a WC.
