About This Property

The White House is a 44 m² gîte for four at Les Gîtes Condorcet, in the heart of Saint-Laurent-de-la-Salanque. It has a light, crisp feel, with shades of white set against solid pine floors and exposed stone and timber. It forms part of a carefully restored former stable, alongside three neighbouring gîtes, and is labelled 2 épis by Gîtes de France. It is also classified as a 3-star “Meublé de Tourisme”.

Downstairs there is a fully equipped modern kitchen, including a dishwasher, and a bright open-plan living and dining area with comfortable seating and a purpose-made wooden staircase. The first floor has a double bedroom with a 140 cm bed, and a bathroom with a large shower, washbasin, heated towel rail and WC. The second floor is a rustic, air-conditioned attic room with two 90 cm single beds under the original beams. This gîte does not have its own washing machine; laundry can be done for you at no charge.
