About This Property

UNEXPECTEDLY AVAILABLE DUE TO LAST MINUTE CANCELLATION - 20% REDUCTION APPLIED TO USUAL PRICE! This delightful stone cottage provides comfortable accommodation for up to 5 +1 baby and is less than 1km from the popular Lac de Guerlédan, a stunning lake 7 miles long that provides an abundance of activities for couples and families of all ages. The property is in the heart of Brittany in the hamlet of Kergoff, tucked away up a quiet lane providing beautiful views. It is within walking distance (1km) to the village of Caurel. Caurel has 3 restaurants and cafe/bars and a wonderful glass making workshop and gallery where you can book a half day workshop and take home a piece of your own glass work. There are numerous things to do in the area and the cottage is perfectly situated for those who love watersports. Guests could also bring their speedboat as water-skiing is allowed on the lake (the French champion) used to train here!
